work. Address, Box 223, Brattleboro, Vt.

Fred A. Alsworth, druggist, Williamstown, Vt., continues to solicit and supply trade at his old stand on Depot street. Do you want anything in his line, no matter what? He will undertake to supply it, and give you satisfaction as to quality, which is a great point. Let me also assure you that he can or will do better by you in his drug line, "ill so" have proved it, by a visit at F. A. Alsworth's store.

Seven tickets for Buffalo were sold at the local Central Vermont station on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Barber of Hinesburg were guests of George P. Barber, their son, on Sunday evening.

Roy A. N. Lewis went today to New Haven, Conn., to attend the Yale bi-centennial celebration. He expects to return on Saturday.

Gorge Campbell of Newport and Miss Florence Campbell, his sister, were visitors in town over Sunday.

Ralph B. Denny went to Wells River Monday on business for the Union Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

Harrison D. Barrett of Boston, will address the Spiritualists in Grand Army hall next Sunday at 2:30 and 7 P.M.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Page of St. Johnsbury were guests of Sidney P. Page, their son, at Montpelier House over Sunday.

The Garnet Seal Circle will meet next Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the trustee's room of the Kellogg Hubbard library.

J. Edward Bailey's horse, Mag, won the 2:20 racing race at White River Junction on Monday and lowered her record of 2:28 to 2:23.

As will be seen by the Marshfield items published elsewhere, Mr. and Mrs. A. W.
Shooman of this city are the happy parents of a daughter.

farm to T. D. Spooner of Barre. The sale was made through the D. A. Petty Real Estate Agency.

The surrounding hills were white with snow Saturday. Four inches, with good sledding, was reported from Mount Han-get and Bear Swamp.

The second church party at Trinity church will be held in the vestry on Wednesday evening. A short literary and musical programme has been prepared.

Dr. and Mrs. George B. Coon left Monday for their new home in Massachusetts. During their stay in Montpelier they have made many friends who regret their departure.
